

We are a community of Effective Communicators

School-wide Learning Goal

The effective communicator is able to clearly express ideas through speaking, writing, performing, and/or creating.

Beginner

- Minimal aspects of main idea are communicated; main idea is unclear and/or supported by few details.

Developing

- Conveys aspects of the main idea but lacks adequate detail and incompletely expresses the message to the intended audience.

Proficient

- Effectively conveys the message to the intended audience with adequate details that support the main idea and meet the criteria.

Outstanding

- Conveys the message to the intended audience in an engaging style with powerful details that support the main idea and completely satisfy the criteria.
