

Master the Basics of Social Studies

Exceeds Standard – The student will be able to demonstrate an understanding of the connections between historical events and literature, art, economics, sciences, technology, geography, politics and/or government as appropriate. (S)he uses these social studies concepts to develop and exchange opinions.

Meets Standards - The student will be able to recognize the connections between historical events and literature, art, economics, science, technology, geography, politics and/or government as appropriate. (S)he uses these social studies concepts to acknowledge diverse opinions.