

Master the Basics of Reading

Basic - The student understands the meaning and the sequential logic of the text. Reader is able to recall some specific details and makes connections to other forms of writing and to one's personal experience. In addition, in literature the reader can identify a common body of literary elements.