

Be Respectful of Self, Others and Property, and Be Responsible for One's Own Actions.

Exceeds Standard - The student understands and appreciates various points of view. The student seeks opportunities to help others and engages in community service.

Meets Standards - The student demonstrates self-discipline and integrity. (S)he demonstrates kindness and compassion for others. The student has a clear understanding of and adheres to community rules, demonstrating respect for others through observance of order and boundaries. The student understands the consequences of his/her actions and is willing to accept responsibility for choices.